◆ Theologiggle

Theologiggle, the Seminary's ambiguously popular annual sketch comedy show, is seeking individuals of at least marginal competency and talent to aid in its April production. Typically the Seminary's comic event of the year, Theologiggle draws its audience from all corners of the campus - with the exception, of course, of that one really creepy corner. Currently needed are technical crew, stage crew, J. Crew, Motley Crue, wait staff, night manager, stage manager, personal assistant to the director, and cast. Now you, too, can be part of this most sincere ministry of humor. Theologiggle is one credential your resume simply cannot do without. Your involvement in the show guaruntees lower stress levels, more free time, improvement in your dating (or married) life, and better mid-range vision. In the words of John O'Brien-Prager: " There isn't a troupe of howler monkeys in the State of New Jersey that puts on a better show than Theologiggle."

Theologiggle

Theologiggle, the Seminary's ambiguously popular annual sketch comedy show, is seeking individuals of at least marginal competency and talent to aid in its April production. Typically the Seminary's comic event of the year, Theologiggle draws its audience from all corners of the campus - with the exception, of course, of that one really creepy corner. Currently needed are technical crew, stage crew, J. Crew, Motley Crue, wait staff, night manager, stage manager, personal assistant to the director, and cast. Now you, too, can be part of this most sincere ministry of humor. Theologiggle is one credential your resume simply cannot do without. Your involvement in the show guarantees lower stress levels, more free time, improvement in your dating (or married) life, and better mid-range vision. In words attributed to John O'Brien-Prager: "There isn't a troupe of howler monkeys in the State of New Jersey that puts on a better show than Theologiggle." In the actual words of John O'Brien-Prager: " I believe that I have been materially libeled...."

Please follow new direction patterns and signs around the quad to avoid driving or parking the wrong way on a one-way street.

The West Windsor Township Police remind residents that it is illegal in New Jersey to park vehicles along the curb opposite the normal traffic direction. If you park your car on Farber Road, Loetscher Place, Emmons Drive, or Canal Pointe Boulevard, please park according to the traffic flow.

The police department has advised the Seminary that officers will issue tickets for this parking violation.

Parking on snow-covered streets is not permitted, and West Windsor Township may ticket or tow cars that inhibit snow-clearing operations. When snow is predicted, please park vehicles in the parking lot. Be prepared to move cars as needed when so requested by the Facilities Department in order to assist in clearing the parking lots. ◆ Thank You

Middler student Buck Breland died on November 8, 1999. His wife, Michele, sent the following letter to The Wineskin.

January 25, 2000

To the Princeton Seminary Community,

I would like to extend my heartfelt thanks to everyone in the Princeton community who has shown support to myself and Buck in the two and a half years we were here together. We arrived at Princeton under very stressful circumstances, but we were blessed to always feel supported by our friends and neighbors.

Unfortunately, right before we moved to Princeton in June 1997, we discovered that Buck had had a recurrence of cancer. As you can imagine, it was an extremely difficult time, but Buck was determined to go to seminary. Over the time that he was a student at the seminary and receiving treatment for his disease, we would often reevaluate our situation, asking, "Is this where we want to be?" knowing that our time together might be short. Buck was certain that he was called to seminary, which I think is a testament to his faith and personal spirituality.

For me, the seminary community turned out to be a good place to be during these very arduous years. I have received so much support from friends and neighbors: meals, rides, prayers, and open hearts. I could never begin to enumerate all that we received from our dear friends in this community. I want to thank everyone, for everything. Pax Christi!

Love, Michele McLaughlin

Course for PCUSA Seminarians

Theologiggle

Theologiggle, the Seminary's ambiguously popular annual sketch comedy show, is seeking individuals of at least marginal competency and talent to aid in its April production. Typically the Seminary's comic event of the year, Theologiggle draws its audience from all corners of the campus - with the exception, of course, of that one really creepy corner. Currently needed are technical crew, stage crew, J. Crew, Motley Crue, wait staff, night manager, stage manager, personal assistant to the director, and cast. Now you, too, can be part of this most sincere ministry of humor. Theologiggle is one credential your resume simply cannot do without. Your involvement in the show guarantees lower stress levels, more free time, improvement in your dating (or married) life, and better mid-range vision. In words attributed to John O'Brien-Prager: "There isn't a troupe of howler monkeys in the State of New Jersey that puts on a better show than Theologiggle." In the actual words of John O'Brien-Prager: " I believe that I have been materially libeled...."

Seminar on Faith-based Social Work

Ms. Stephanie Boddie, a Ph.D. candidate at the University of Pennsylvania School of Social Work and a member of its faculty, will offer a three-part seminar titled "Congregations Working outside the Walls."

The seminar is offered as a response to the interest among PTS students in the relation between religious ministry and social work. Expectations and opportunities for faith-based organizations to become involved in community service have been drastically increased by recent federal policy and legislation. This state of affairs requires careful consideration of the theological commitments involved, as well as of the issues of congregational mobilization and legal accountability.

The seminar will be held at the Center of Continuing Education, March 18, March 25, and April 1, 9:30 a.m. - 12:30 p.m. and 2:00 p.m. - 5:30 p.m. Registration is free to PTS students. A Newer Deal: Social Work and Religion in Partnership by Ram Cnaan, to which Ms. Boddie is a contributor, is available at the TBA and on reserve at Speer Library. Registrants are urged to purchase a copy.

This Seminary-wide event welcomes all and encourages your participation. Initiated by TSF with the blessings of the Association of Black Seminarians and other student groups in the SGA, this event will inform our life together. The event will follow a special Seminary dinner and will include an elaborate children's program with snacks, films, and a special entertainment guest (a clown!). Formerly a leader with the Coalition Building Institute, Smith convened the Howard Thurman Reconciliation Initiatives (TRI). Seminar on Faith-based Social Work

Ms. Stephanie Boddie, a Ph.D. candidate at the University of Pennsylvania School of Social Work and a member of its faculty, will offer a three-part seminar titled "Congregations Working outside the Walls."

The seminar is offered as a response to the interest among PTS students in the relation between religious ministry and social work. Expectations and opportunities for faith-based organizations to become involved in community service have been drastically increased by recent federal policy and legislation. This state of affairs requires careful consideration of the theological commitments involved, as well as of the issues of congregational mobilization and legal accountability.

The seminar will be held at the Center of Continuing Education, March 18, March 25, and April 1, 9:30 a.m. - 12:30 p.m. and 2:00 p.m. - 5:30 p.m. Registration is free to PTS students. A Newer Deal: Social Work and Religion in Partnership by Ram Cnaan, to which Ms. Boddie is a contributor, is available at the TBA and on reserve at Speer Library. Registrants are urged to purchase a copy.

Memorandum

The Communications/Publications Office

To : Faculty, Administrators, Staff, and Students
From : Barbara Chaapel
Date : Monday, February 28, 2000
Re : Wineskin submissions

Two reminders to all of you who submit notices for The Wineskin.

First, we MUST have all notices by noon on the Monday before the week of the issue in which you want the notice to run. That is our deadline. In the past few weeks, a number of people, including faculty members, students, and staff, have turned in late notices. In the future, we will not publish late notices.

Second, when you give us Wineskin information, please give us COMPLETE information. We have received notices without times or with incorrect times, notices without sponsoring groups or departments or contact people, and notices with the names of speakers, but no indication of who they are (i.e. title, position, etc.), for example. We have forms for submitting Wineskin information in our office (301 Templeton Hall) and posted on the academic web at: http://home.ptsem.edu/wineskin/request_form.htm

Wineskin Policies

1. The Wineskin is a vehicle for disseminating information about Seminary events in a timely, brief, and readable manner to the Seminary community. It includes a calendar of weekly events, notices of upcoming events, and announcements of notices of general interest to the Seminary community. It is the only vehicle on campus that fulfills such a purpose.

2. The Wineskin is published weekly except during vacation periods. The deadline for all copy is Mondays at noon. Material must be submitted on a Wineskin form, available in the Communications/Publications office or on the academic web. The Wineskin will be distributed each week on Fridays in campus mailboxes and on the academic web.

3. The Wineskin is published by the Office of Communications/Publications (301 Templeton Hall). The director of communications/publications is the editor and will make all final editorial decisions.

4. In order to assure the effectiveness of The Wineskin in meeting its purpose, certain limitations on material are necessary:

   a. Upcoming campus events may appear two times in The Wineskin: once preceding the event and again the week of the event. No more than two notices of events will be printed in order to avoid unnecessary repetition. The only exceptions to this policy will be major campus lectureships, conferences, or worship services.

   b. Notices addressed to limited groups within the Seminary community and which are publicized in other ways will not appear in The Wineskin except in list form. This applies to notices of placement opportunities and field education opportunities.

   c. Official notices of general interest to the Seminary community from the offices of the President, the Dean of Academic Affairs, or the Dean of Student Affairs may be published up to three times in The Wineskin. Other notices will only be published twice.

   d. Some notices of off-campus events will be published as space permits. Detailed information about these events will not be included, but further information will be available in the Office of Communications/Publications.

   e. Notices of events will generally be limited to factual information, i.e. date, place, time, topic, speaker's credentials. Promotional language will be kept to a minimum. Groups wishing to promote their activities further are encouraged to use other forms of publicity in addition to The Wineskin.

Following these guidelines will help us to get The Wineskin out in an accurate and timely manner. If you have questions, please do not hesitate to call me at ext. 7760.

Thank you!

Seminar on Faith-based Social Work

Ms. Stephanie Boddie, a Ph.D. candidate at the University of Pennsylvania School of Social Work and a member of its faculty, will offer a three-part seminar titled "Congregations Working outside the Walls."

The seminar is offered as a response to the interest among PTS students in the relation between religious ministry and social work. Expectations and opportunities for faith-based organizations to become involved in community service have been drastically increased by recent federal policy and legislation. This state of affairs requires careful consideration of the theological commitments involved, as well as of the issues of congregational mobilization and legal accountability.

The seminar will be held at the Center of Continuing Education, March 18, March 25, and April 1, 9:30 a.m. - 12:30 p.m. and 2:00 p.m. - 5:30 p.m. Registration is free to PTS students. A Newer Deal: Social Work and Religion in Partnership by Ram Cnaan, to which Ms. Boddie is a contributor, is available at the TBA and on reserve at Speer Library. Registrants are urged to purchase a copy.

Seminar on Faith-based Social Work

Ms. Stephanie Boddie, a Ph.D. candidate at the University of Pennsylvania School of Social Work and a member of its faculty, will offer a three-part seminar titled "Congregations Working outside the Walls."

The seminar is offered as a response to the interest among PTS students in the relation between religious ministry and social work. Expectations and opportunities for faith-based organizations to become involved in community service have been drastically increased by recent federal policy and legislation. This state of affairs requires careful consideration of the theological commitments involved, as well as of the issues of congregational mobilization and legal accountability.

The seminar will be held at the Center of Continuing Education, March 18, March 25, and April 1, 9:30 a.m. - 12:30 p.m. and 2:00 p.m. - 5:30 p.m. Registration is free to PTS students. A Newer Deal: Social Work and Religion in Partnership by Ram Cnaan, to which Ms. Boddie is a contributor, is available at the TBA and on reserve at Speer Library. Registrants are urged to purchase a copy.

SO YOU THINK YOU'RE FUNNY... well, guess what? So do we. And it is your good humor—your ability to laugh at yourself—that has earned you an invitation to do just that.

Seminary life is funny—funny not in that "ha ha" sort of way; more like, "Hey, that guy's nostrils are HUGE," sort of funny. But then, seminary is really just a microcosm of the neuroses of Christian life. In fact, life here at PTS seems to exist as a somewhat obsessive-compulsive portal into ecclesial life generally, and, for that reason, THEOLOGIGGLE (that wildly popular sketch comedy show) has been quite self-consciously returned to the churched proletariate. That is, the show has been de-contextualized. Ever been to Sunday school? Then you'll get the show this time around—more or less all of it.

To anyone who's ever sat through a THEOLOGIGGLE sketch assuming its relative humor but unable to laugh because its punchlines are just too specifically contextual: THIS SHOW'S FOR YOU.

Come early (7:30) and hear the tender grooves of MORE MILK. Tickets go on sale in the Mackay Campus Center on Monday, April 3. General Admission: $7; Select Seating: $8

Ecumenical Vigil against the Death Penalty

The state executed Jesus Christ, a poor, innocent outsider. Today in America the death penalty is applied in a racist, classist manner that in all likelihood kills the innocent. Please join the Seminarians for Social Change as we worship Jesus Christ and oppose the very capital punishment that killed him.

General ❖ Notices

◆ Buck Breland Memorial Gift
Dear Friends,
Buck Breland was a member of the Princeton Theological Seminary graduating Class of 2000. He died of Hodgkin's disease before completing his M. Div. studies. Buck was not defined by his illness, but by his response to it. His response was to challenge everyone he met to face the evil of inadequate medical care. Are you ready to face the challenge? Buck always left us something to do. This time the Class of 2000 is taking his challenge by establishing a fund benefiting students in need of medical care while at PTS.

To contribute to this fund and accept Buck's challenge, please send a check payable to Princeton Theological Seminary with "Breland Memorial Gift" in the note line. Send donations to: Development Office, Princeton Theological Seminary, P.O. Box 821, Princeton NJ 08542-0803
Blessings,

Spring Fertilizer Program

At the end of April, the grounds staff will fertilize and apply weed and pest controls to the main campus, the Tennent campus, and the CRW grounds. Small yellow flags will be placed on all treated areas.

Please keep children and pets safely away from the machinery during the application process. Residents should keep traffic on the lawns to a minimum for a few days following the application in order to allow the treatment to work.
